Classes will meet from 10:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. daily. Students will attend the morning Amphitheater lecture from 10:45 a.m. to 12 p.m. followed by a post-lecture discussion class. Each one-credit hour course is offered at a special rate of $90 for NYS residents and $180 for non-residents. Each student will also be assessed a $75 fee per course for weeklong daytime Chautauqua Institution gate and parking passes. Chautauqua Institution residents not needing these passes may request a fee waiver. To register, contact the JCC registrar's office at 716/665-5220 or 800/388-8557, ext. 2332 or visit the registrar's office in the Hamilton Collegiate Center.

Earn college credit through Jamestown Community College as you explore the Amphitheater Lecture Series themes at world-renowned Chautauqua Institution in greater detail during a series of one-credit hour courses. Attendance at lectures and post-lecture discussion classes and completion of written assignments will support an in-depth examination of lecture themes while providing exposure to world-class writers, theologians, physicians, researchers, urban planners, and historians.. Each of the nine seminar courses will offer interesting insights to those pursuing degrees in lecture-theme areas as well as those simply interested in further exploring selected areas. Seminar instructors, experts in their respective fields, have much to offer those interested in a more thorough examination of these timely topics.
