Two Topics Per Session

Instructor: Andrea DiMaio

Andrea DiMaio has been a dog trainer and canine behavior specialist for almost eight years and a Master Groomer for eleven years. She is a member of the Association of Pet Dog Trainers as well as a certified AKC

Canine Good Citizen evaluator. Andrea is also a certified mentor trainer for the Animal Behavior College. She has also taught continuing education classes at Jamestown Community College on canine behavior. To give her clients the most effective solutions to their dog needs, she continues her education by attending seminars and conferences throughout the country with some of the industry's top animal professionals and staying current on all industry literature.

Andrea enjoys coming up with workable answers for her clients and the dogs that love them. She is referred to by local veterinarians and the Chautauqua County Humane Society.

How Do Dogs Learn?

Dogs, as most animals, learn in similar ways. Dogs learn by figuring out what works. Learn how to teach your dog and how to manage common behavior problems using basic principles of learning.

and

Bad Dog, Bad Dog, Whatcha Gonna Do?

"Bad dog!" How many of our dogs think that is their name? Does your dog chew on shoes and furniture, go potty on the floor because he's mad at you, or jump on people? Discover why dogs do things that make us so mad. Learn how to stop bad behaviors and use exercise and diet to control destructiveness and/or hyperactivity.

February 24 $20

Leader of the Pack

We hear the word, alpha, constantly. Do you understand what it means? Does your dog understand the methods you use? Learn proper ways to teach your dog who the leader is in your home. These methods can be used by all family members. If you want your dog to listen, you need to be a strong pack leader.

Everyday Dog Life

We will discuss in detail how to teach general commands, such as walking nicely on a leash and no jumping. How to incorporate manners and training into everyday life. We'll discuss a "day in the life" of a dog that has typical behavior problems and how to go about making the dog into a great family pet. We will also discuss ways to enrich the dog and owner's life.
