CERTIFICATION FOR FEDERAL STUDENT AID

Our office has received the results of your FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) for the 2017-18 aid year. It was not signed by all necessary parties as required; therefore, it is not valid and requires action from you. If you wish to be considered for federal, state aid, or institutional aid your 2017-18 FAFSA application must be signed. This form may be used as a signature page for your FAFSA. You must agree to the following statement by signing on the lines provided below. If you choose to sign your FAFSA by this method, our office must receive this original signed document. Faxes or copies of this form will not be accepted.

If you are the student, by signing this application you certify that you (1) will use federal and/or state student financial aid only to pay the cost of attending an institution of higher education, (2) are not in default on a federal student loan or have made satisfactory arrangements to repay it, (3) do not owe money back on a federal student grant or have made satisfactory arrangements to repay it, (4) will notify your college if you default on a federal student loan and (5) will not receive a Federal Pell Grant from more than one college for the same period of time.

If you are the parent of the student, by signing this application you certify that all of the information you provided is true and complete to the best of your knowledge and you agree, if asked, to provide information that will verify the accuracy of your completed form. This information may include U.S. or state income tax forms that you filed or are required to file. Also, you certify that you understand that the Secretary of Education has the authority to verify information reported on this application with the Internal Revenue Service and other federal agencies. If you sign any document related to the federal student aid programs electronically using a personal username and password, and/or any other credential, you certify that you are the person identified by that username and password, and/or other credential, and have not disclosed that personal username and password, and/or other credential to anyone else. If you purposely give false or misleading information, you may be fined up to $20,000, sent to prison, or both.

The student (and at least one parent, if parent information is provided on the FAFSA) must sign below.
