Please note:

- Effective October 27, 2008, the US Department of Homeland Security (DHS) requires the collection of a one-time fee of $200 from new international students and visiting scholars. DHS will use the fee to help cover the operational costs of the Student and Exchange Visitor Information System (SEVIS). SEVIS is a central computerized system that maintains and manages data concerning international students (F-1 status), exchange visitors (J-1 status), and their dependents (F-2 and J-2) during their stay in the United States.

- The SEVIS fee must be paid and fully processed before the applicant arrives at the consulate for the visa interview. Payment of the fee is not required of F-2 and J-2 dependents. The fee can be paid by mail using Form I-901 together with a check or money order drawn on a US bank and payable in US dollars. Or, the fee can be paid electronically by completing Form I-901 through the internet and using a Visa, MasterCard, or American Express credit card. For more detailed information on this process, go to http://www.ice.gov/sevis/i901/index.htm.

- Minimum score of 500 (paper-based), 173 (computer-based), or 61 (Internet-based) on the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) is required. This test is given in countries throughout the world. Testing information is available from TOEFL, Box 899, Princeton, New Jersey 08541, U.S.A., and United States embassies or consulates or www.toefl.org. The TOEFL exam is required by all international students. Students from Australia, Canada, Great Britain, India, New Zealand, and the Caribbean islands of Bahamas, Jamaica, and Trinidad are not required to submit TOEFL scores but will be tested upon arrival to the institution. A minimum score of 5.0 is required on the IELTS.

Note:

- Tuition and fees are subject to change.
- New York state law requires that sickness insurance, repatriation insurance and evacuation insurance be carried by all international students. Current policy provides that this expense be paid at the same time tuition is due.
- Financial aid is not available for international students at Jamestown Community College. The U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service will not approve any off-campus employment unless the student is able to present and document that there have been unforeseen changes in economic circumstances since arrival in the United States. It is imperative that adequate sources of finances be available, without working, for the duration of study.
