

Articulation Agreement

Jamestown Community College and Franklin University

This document establishes a transfer articulation agreement between Jamestown Community College and Franklin University, and sets forth requirements for guaranteed admission to Franklin University, transferability of credits, and a seamless transition for Jamestown Community College graduates seeking a bachelor's degree.

Jamestown Community College and Franklin University enter into this agreement in the spirit of cooperation, and mutually recognize each other as quality institutions of higher learning. Each institution is dedicated to serving all students, regardless of race, national origin, religion, sex, disability, color, age, marital status, or other non-merit factors.

TRANSFER

Franklin University guarantees, upon application by Jamestown Community College associate degree graduates, acceptance to their choice of any Franklin University bachelor's degree program. Upon acceptance, transfer students from Jamestown Community College will have full junior standing at Franklin University. Students can choose to take their Franklin University courses entirely online, entirely in a traditional classroom setting at Franklin University, or in any combination of online/traditional coursework.

Appendix A details how specific Jamestown Community College courses will transfer to Franklin University. All other Jamestown Community College courses will transfer as General Education Electives or as University Electives.

The list below includes all bachelor's degrees offered by Franklin University as of November 2019. See <https://www.franklin.edu/transferring-credit/transferring-community-college> for a current list of Franklin degrees, course requirements for each degree, and other information about transferring to Franklin University.
